More Card Control at Your Fingertips

A misplaced debit card doesn't have to cause immediate panic. With our free SecurLOCK Equip app, you can quickly turn your GPFCU debit card off if it's lost or something doesn't look right—and turn it back on if the card is found.

SecurLOCK Equip gives you another convenient way to monitor and protect your card, right from your smartphone.

Download SecurLOCK Equip from your device's app store and take more control of your GPFCU debit card wherever you go. Questions? Contact us for assistance.

Make the Most of Your Christmas Club

Your withdrawal period is open—and next year's savings can begin now.

Christmas Club funds are available for withdrawal without a fee from October 1 through December 31, 2026. Withdrawals made outside this period are subject to a $5 fee, so plan ahead as you prepare for holiday expenses.

Start saving for the 2027 holidays.

Give next year's holiday budget a head start! Setting aside just $50 every two weeks can add up to approximately $1,300 over 12 months—giving you more room for gifts, travel, celebrations, and other seasonal expenses.

Keep your savings growing with convenient payroll deduction, direct deposit, or recurring transfers. Stop by any GPFCU branch or call 412-621-6800 to open your 2027 Christmas Club today.

Holiday Travel & Access

Heading out of town for the holidays? GPFCU can help you stay connected to your money wherever your travels take you.

Through the CO-OP Shared Branch network, you can visit thousands of participating credit union locations nationwide to:

- Make deposits or withdrawals
- Transfer funds between accounts
- Make a GPFCU loan payment

Important change: Before visiting a shared branch, bring a valid government-issued photo ID and a smart-enabled device. Shared branching transactions also require digital identity verification through IDCheck.

Traveling with your GPFCU debit or credit card? Let us know before you leave to help prevent interruptions. Submit a travel notice at any branch, call 412-621-6800, or email info@gpittfcu.org.

Find a participating location near your destination at co-opcreditunions.org/locator/. We also offer full ATM access through the AllPoint network and First National Bank, enabling you to get cash at locations nationwide.

Shop Smart. Celebrate Safely.

Protecting Your Money During the Holiday Season

Holiday shopping moves quickly—and scammers count on busy shoppers acting before they pause. Watch for fake online stores, package-delivery texts, phony charities, gift card payment demands, and unexpected requests for account information.

A few smart habits can help protect your money:

- Monitor your accounts and set free transaction alerts through Online Home Banking or the GPFCU mobile app.
- Use SecurLOCK Equip to lock your debit card immediately if it is lost or something feels wrong.
- Shop on secure sites, and avoid saving card information with unfamiliar retailers.
- Never share your PIN or a one-time passcode. GPFCU will not contact you to request this information.

If you notice suspicious activity, contact GPFCU immediately. Early reporting can help limit potential losses. You can also report scams at ReportFraud.ftc.gov.

Your Money. Your Credit Union. Your Neighbors.

In a rapidly changing financial landscape—where artificial intelligence is reshaping how businesses operate and large financial institutions increasingly rely on automated systems to manage customer relationships—it can be difficult to know who is really looking out for you.

At Greater Pittsburgh Federal Credit Union, the answer is simple: we are.

Every time you call us, you speak to a person. Every time you walk through our doors, you're greeted by a neighbor who lives and works in this same community, who understands what it means to stretch a budget, plan for the future, and build something worth protecting.

We are not a corporation answering to its shareholders. We are not a platform optimizing for profit. We are a member-owned cooperative, meaning money you deposit here stays here, working for you and for every other member of this credit union. Our earnings are returned to our members in the form of better rates, lower fees, and expanded services. Not funneled upward to line billionaire's pockets. Reinvested—right here, in Pittsburgh, in the people who make this institution and city what it is.

That is what it means to be a credit union. That is what it has always meant.

In a world that feels increasingly automated, impersonal, and uncertain, we remain something rare: a financial institution that is genuinely, structurally, and legally required to put its members first.

You are not a customer here. You are an owner.

And that will never change.
